- PhD candidate

Commitment

- Most positions will meet 1-3 days per week*
- Selected candidates will be expected to start in June 2021
- If you require a specific number of hours or are planning to do this internship for credit, please state your requirements in your cover letter

* This time is subject to change depending on the unique schedule that will be created with each selected candidate.

*Please note that each position is unique and will either be a virtual or hybrid structure

Application Requirements

- Cover Letter
- Resume
- Academic Transcript (unofficial is acceptable)
- Letter of Recommendation from a professor, academic advisor, or supervisor (only 1 letter will be accepted)
- Graphic Design applicants must also supply an electronic portfolio (website, links, documents, etc.)

Application Deadline

All materials must be submitted by Sunday, May 2, 2021. We will not accept any materials after this date.

Notification of Decision
Please note that we do not review applications until after the Application Deadline, so you will not hear from us until after that date, if you are selected for an interview. We appreciate your patience during this time.

* Due to the number of applications we receive, we are only able to contact applicants selected for the interview process.

Sending Applications Materials (including Reference Letters)

All materials may be sent via the following options:

- Preferred Method: internships@artbma.org (please indicate the position(s) you are applying for in the subject line)
- Through the post (please only use this method if there is no possibility to e-mail documents):

BMA Internship Program Stipends

To promote our mission and DEAI initiatives, all BMA Interns are awarded a $750 stipend.

The Joshua Johnson Council Stipends

Through generous support from our Joshua Johnson Council, we are able to offer 2 stipends aimed at increasing participation of minority groups who are underrepresented in the fields of museum programming and administration. If you are interested in applying for a JJC Stipend, please indicate this clearly in your cover letter. The two candidates selected to receive a JJC stipend ($1000/each) will be notified.

Please note that if you are awarded a JJC Stipend, you are not eligible for a $750 BMA Internship Program stipend.

FAQs

Q: May I apply for more than one open Internship opportunity?
A: Yes, you may apply for up to two open positions. Please reference them in your Cover Letter. You may also submit 2 separate cover letters (one for each position).

Q: What should I include in my Cover Letter/Letter of Intent?
A: Please include specific references to the position(s) for which you are applying and why you are interested in that department(s). It’s best to list experiences/classes that relate to the position(s). Also, please note if you are doing this Internship for credit.

Q: Should my Letter of Recommendation be sent separately or with my other materials?
A: Either way is fine!
Any additional questions may be sent to internships@artbma.org. Please, no phone calls.
