

Fall 2020 Internship Program

Contemporary Art Curatorial Intern

The BMA's Contemporary Curatorial Department is seeking an Intern to assist with research related to a multi-artist commission project, Great Migration, opening in Spring 2022. The Intern will provide bibliographic research support for the project including researching archival records such as newspaper articles, images, and other historical academic papers.

The Intern will have the opportunity to work cross departmentally to assist with collections management related to this exhibition. They will also have the opportunity to work closely with the artists directly. Additionally, they will help with other tasks related to the exhibition development process including administrative duties, updating the collections database, etc.

Please note that this internship will be virtual this semester

Responsibilities

Responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Conducting object based research
- Compiling a bibliography of academic and archival sources
- Maintaining organized records for the exhibition

Qualifications

- Familiarity with Microsoft Office Suite
- Experience working in a database
- Strong research skills
- Strong knowledge of Contemporary Art/Art History preferred

Apply

Please download the Application Instructions to learn how to apply for this position. If you have any questions or concerns, you may contact us at internships@artbma.org.